Introduction

Moirai Wealth Management is an SEC registered investment adviser that has provided investment and wealth management services to retail investors since 2000. We do not provide services as a broker-dealer. There are differences between investment advisers and broker-dealers, and it is important for you to understand them as you decide what kind of account is right for you. You can learn more about the differences between investment advisers and broker-dealers at the websites provided by the SEC like <https://www.investor.gov/> and <https://www.investor.gov/crs>.

What Investment Services and Advice Can You Provide Me?

Investment Management Services: If you request investment management services, we will:

- Develop an investment approach for you that reflects your age, income, family circumstances, financial condition, investment goals, and risk tolerance.
- Conduct reviews of your investment goals and asset allocation in response to any changes in the above factors.
- Provide ongoing monitoring of your investment accounts.
- Monitor market, economic, industrial sector, and geo-political trends.
- Review relevant financial industry research on a routine basis.
- Determine the securities to buy and sell for your accounts that are consistent with Moirai’s investment strategy and with your financial condition, goals, and risk tolerance.
- Buy and sell securities on a “discretionary” basis that authorizes us to trade without your prior approval of each trade. We may make an exception where appropriate and advise you on a “non-discretionary” basis for designated accounts or assets. In such a case, we would only make investment recommendations to you and allow you to make the decisions as to which securities to buy or sell.
- Recommend and monitor the services of third-party sub-advisors, as appropriate.
- Vote proxies for the securities in your account.

Moirai typically imposes a minimum portfolio size requirement of $3,000,000.

Financial Consultation Services: We provide financial planning and consultation services, as well. If you request these types of services, will evaluate your financial picture and help you set financial goals. This may include help with tax planning, retirement planning, estate and wealth transfer. Other analyses may include evaluating your current portfolio, stock options, education funding goals, insurance needs, mortgage financing and charitable giving.

What Fees Will I Pay?

These are the principal types of fees you will pay to us in connection with our services:

- Asset-Based Fees: Investment management fees charged as a percentage of the value of the assets under our management. These are paid quarterly.

Our fees may vary amongst clients.

Other fees & costs you will pay to others in relation to your investments include:

- Sub-Advisor Asset-Based Fees: Sub-advisor investment management fees are charged directly against your account by the sub-advisor and are in addition to the fees paid to us.

- Custodian fees. If charged, these are paid to your custodian directly, on an annual or a monthly basis.
- Maintenance fees. If charged, these are paid to your custodian directly.
- Transactional and product-level fees (commissions). If charged, these are paid to your executing broker-dealer directly, at the time of each transaction.
- Fees related to Funds. Mutual funds, exchange traded funds (ETFs) and private funds may impose ongoing management fees, administrative fees and redemption or surrender fees. These are paid to the issuer of the fund or ETF that issues the annuity directly.

The fee any investment adviser charges reduces the value of your account when it is deducted each billing period. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. You will pay the asset-based fee each period even if no securities are bought or sold in your account. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. More detail about our fees is in our Form ADV Part 2A, Item 5.

What Are Your Legal Obligations to Me When Acting as My Investment Adviser?

We have adopted an internal Code of Ethics. When we act as your investment adviser, we must act in your best interest and not put our interests ahead of yours. Where the interests of our Firm or staff conflict with our duties to you, we must work to eliminate the conflict or inform you of it in clear terms. You should understand these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you.

How Else Does Your Firm Make Money and What Conflicts of Interest Do You Have?

Here are examples to help you understand what this means:

- We charge fees for our services and that creates a conflict with your interests. The more assets there are in your investment account, the more absolute dollars you pay to us in fees, and we therefore have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. This occurs when we recommend you invest in securities rather than annuities, real estate, or non-managed assets or that you rollover a 401K retirement account to an IRA account managed by our Firm.
- We advise you to custody your investment accounts with Charles Schwab because it provides us with essential trading, reporting, compliance, education and back office services and investment research.
- Our employees personally invest in the same, or different securities based upon their personal financial situations and their investments may perform as well as, better or worse than our clients' investments.

How Do Your Financial Professionals Make Money?

Our financial professionals are paid a salary based upon their education, professional training, work background and the level of skill, sophistication and dedication they exhibit in conducting their work for the Firm. Financial professionals who are owners of the business share in the profits of the business. Non-owner financial professionals receive salaries and are entitled to participate in the Firm's bonus program in years in which bonuses are awarded.
